WASHINGTON, Wednesday, March 16.

DISPATCH FROM GEN. SHERMAN.

Maj.-Gen. W. T. SHERMAN, in a dispatch dated Vicksburgh, Feb. 27, via Cairo, March 10, has addressed the following to Lieut.-Gen. GRANT, care of Maj.-Gen. HALLECK:

GENERAL: I got in this morning from Canton, where I left my army in splendid heart and condition. We reached Jackson, Feb. 6, crossed the Pearl and passed through Brandon to Morton, where the enemy made dispositions for battle, but fled in the night. We posted on over all obstacles, and reached Meridian Feb. 14. Gen. POLK having a railroad to assist him on his retreat, escaped across the Tombigbee on the 17th. We stayed at Meridian a week; and made the most complete destruction of railroads ever beheld; south below Quitman, east to Cuba Station, twenty miles north to Lauderdale Springs, and west, all the way back to Jackson. I could hear nothing of the cavalry force of Gen. WM. SMITH ordered to be there by Feb. 10. I inclose this by mail, with a copy of his instructions. I then began to give back slowly, making a circuit by the north to Canton, where I left the army yesterday in splendid condition. I will leave it there five days in hopes the cavalry from Memphis will turn up there. I will have them come in."

DISPATCH FROM GEN. BUTTERFIELD.

CAIRO, Friday, March 11.

Maj.-Gen. BUTTERFIELD has addressed the following to Lieut. Gen. GRANT or Gen. HALLECK:

Gen. SHERMAN arrived yesterday at Memphis, his command is all safe. Our total loss in killed, wounded and missing is 170 only—the general result of his expedition, including SMITH'S, and the Yazoo River movements are about as follows: 150 miles of railroad, 67 bridges, 7,000 feet of trestle, 20 locomotives, 28 cars, 10,000 bales of cotton, several steam-mills, and over 2,000,000 bushels corn were destroyed. The railroad destruction is complete and thorough. The captures of prisoners exceed all loss. Upward of 8,000 contrabands and refugees came in with various columns.

OPERATIONS OF GEN. DODGE.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 11.

Lieut.-Gen. U. S. Grant:

After occupying Decatur, DODGE pushed west to Courtland, thence to Moulton, driving the enemy, capturing many prisoners and stores, ammunition, salt and stock.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE N. Y. TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, March 16.

DEATH OF PRISONERS IN RICHMOND.

It has transpired that no less than 500 of our prisoners in Richmond died during the month of February. The last installment received at Annapolis were in comparatively good condition, having been inspected before being sent off, and the sick or disabled retained. Whether the rebels intend thus to swell the mortality list, and increase the number of totally disabled, is a subject of conjecture with those returned.

THE WILKES COURT-MARTIAL.

In the WILKES Court-Martial to-day, the cross-examination of Commodore BALDWIN was continued. He testified to the activity of the accused in cruising in the West Indies, while in possession of the Vanderbilt, and to the superior speed of that vessel to the rest of his squadron. His testimony further showed that, in accordance with orders, the accused had dispatched his vessel to Brazil, transferring his flag, on departure of the rebel privateers, in accordance with instructions.

GEN. MEADE TO BE SUPERSEDED.

Notwithstanding the persistent denials, Gen. MEADE is to be superseded in command of the Army of the Potomac. The order relieving him, and appointing his successor, will be issued in a few days.

CREDITS FOR ENLISTMENTS IN THE REGULAR ARMY.

Under a new order, all men enlisting or reënlisting in the regular army, from the different armies in the field or from the District of Columbia, will be allowed to select the State, district, township, town and ward to which they prefer being credited to the localities where they are made.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, March 16.

PASSAGE OF THE GOLD BILL.

The Senate has concurred in the House amendment to the Gold Bill, which now only awaits signature to become a law.

EXCITEMENT AMONG THE GOLD SPECULATORS.

A large number of gold speculators were in attendance at the House to-day, exhibiting a high state of excitement pending the action on the Gold bill. When the vote was taken they rushed to the telegraph instrument to advise by that agency their distant friends.

THE RAPPAHANNOCK.

It is officially known that the statement that the Rappahannock has left Calais and gone to sea is erroneous. She was still detained at Calais on the 27th of February, and her case was under consideration of the French Government.

THE DEFICIENCY BILL.

The Deficiency Bill, which has now become a law, contains the following appropriations:

For completing the repairs of the Government Warehouse on Staten Island, $10,000.

For alterations of the Custom-house in Cincinnati, Ohio, $25,000; for alterations of the Custom-house in Louisville, Ky., $15,000; for the completion of the Custom-House at Dubuque, Iowa, $30,000; for repairs and preservation of custom-houses, marine hospitals, and other public buildings under the supervision of the Treasury Department, $10,000; for erecting a naval hospital at Kittery, Me., $25,000; for extending the Naval Asylum at Philadelphia, and for erecting a naval hospital at Washington, D. C., $25,000.

LOSS OF THE DANISH BARK CORINTHIAN.

As the steamer Salvor, Capt. ROBINSON, of the New-York line of steamers, was en route for Washington and Georgetown, she collided with the Danish bark Corinthian, Capt. OUTSTINE, bound for New-York, with a cargo of iron. The collision occurred before daylight, about 22 miles from Cape Henlopen, and was attributable to the lights carried by the bark, causing a mistake as to her character. The Salvor struck the bark a little forward of the fore-rigging, and she went down immediately. The Captain, two mates, one passenger, and three seamen were secured from the Corinthian, but on account of the darkness and the rapidity with which the bark went down, the steward, three seamen and a boy were lost. The Saloor was but slightly damaged—her bowsprit being broken, and other unimportant damage to her hull.

THE POST-OFFICE APPROPRIATION BILL.

The House concurred in the Senate's amendments to the Post-office Appropriation bill.

These amendments appropriate $640,000 for the payment of letter-carriers, and $1,500,000 to meet any deficiency which may exist in the Post-office revenue.

THE GOLD BILL.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the Gold Bill, as returned from the Senate with amendments.

Mr. HULBURD, of New-York, (Union,) had yesterday proposed an amendment providing that the obligation to create the Sinking Fund, according to the Act of Feb. 25, 1862, shall not be impaired by the sale of gold.

Mr. STEVENS, of Pennsylvania, (Union,) in reply to a few observations of Mr. PRUYN, and Mr. KERNAN, of New-York, said the obligation of the Act of 1862 did not require that the Sinking Fund should be paid in gold, but that the Government should buy only so much of the public debt as would amount to one per cent. annually.

The amendment of Mr. HULBURD was agreed to.

Mr. HIGBY, of California, (Union) opposed the bill. It was a proposition to enable the Government to go into the market and gamble in gold. What was the difference in principle between the Government with millions in its hands for this purpose and individuals with only thousands? He was opposed to the Government buying with gold its own paper at a depreciation of its value fixed by itself. If gold is to be taken out of the Treasury, let it be paid to the Government creditors. In this way we would be enabled to sustain the credit of the Government, and keep its paper at a higher value. He would vote against the Government becoming a stock-jobber and gold-broker. We should be faithful to our pledges that the coin in the Treasury should be reserved for the payment of the interest on the public debt and decreasing the Sinking Fund.

Mr. KELLY, of Pennsylvania, (Union,) was opposed to the proposition to sell gold when it was first brought before the House thinking it might do harm, but on reflection he had changed his mind and would now give to the bill his support. He did not consider that the power would interfere or impair the obligations of the Government as to the Sinking Fund or payment of the interest on the public debt. By keeping the twenty millions of gold we are losing interest upon it and increasing the price of commodities to the Government, to the wives and children of our soldiers in the field, and to the people at large. He briefly argued that the granting of the power would have a beneficial effect both on the Government and the community. The bill did not make it the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to sell surplus gold, but authorized him to do so in his discretion for the best interest of the country.

Mr. STEVENS, of Pennsylvania, (Union,) did not intend to make a long speech. He had no knowledge that would justify him in indulging in theories regarding financial matters. He had not much faith in theory against fact. By the legislation of Congress, two years ago, whether wisely or not, it was declared, in effect, "that gold is no longer money in the actual and practical sense of the word." The money of the nation is that which has been made lawful money by act of Congress, which has demonetized gold and other coin. He repeated that practically what Congress has declared lawful money is the standard of value. Iron and lead have been increased in price as well as gold. The use of gold or any other metal, when used in lieu of paper money, is the exception, and not the rule. The Government holds $20,000,000 of gold, and $20,000,000 are wanted by the merchants. Let it be known that the Government has money which it can sell at a reasonable rate when the Shylocks on the Rialto will cease to whet their knives and sell their gold at the same price. He did not desire to see overtrading in order that foreigners may take from us our gold. In the course of his remarks, he said that on the 1st of January next we will have $50,000,000 in gold on hand, and have a surplus of which we could make disposition. In conclusion, Mr. STEVENS moved the previous question.

Mr. COX, of Ohio, (Dem.,) moved a call of the House, but this was disagreed to.

The bill as amended by the Senate, with the amendment of Mr. HULBURD, viz: providing that the obligation to create a sinking fund, according to the Act of Feb. 25, 1862, shall not be impaired thereby, was then passed, 83 against 57, as follows:

NAYS—Messrs. James C. Allen, Ancona, Bailey, Baldwin of Michigan, Biss, Broomall, Clay, Coffroth, Cox, Davis of New-York, Deming, Dennison, Eldridge, Hall, Hale, Harrington, Harris of Illinois, Herrick, Higby, Holman, Hutchins, Kernan, Law, Long, Mallory, Marcy, McAllister, McDowell, McIndoe, McKinney, Middleton, Miller of Pennsylvania, Morris of Ohio, Morrison, Noble, O'Neill of Ohio, Pendleton, Price, Pruyn, Radford, Randall of Pennsylvania, Rogers, Rollins of Missouri, Ross, Steele of New-York, Stiles, Strouse, Sweat, Thomas, Tracy, Voorhees, Wheeler, White of Ohio, Williams, Yeaman.

The bill as it has passed is as follows:

"That the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to anticipate the payment of interest on the public debt, by a period not exceeding one year, from time to time, either with or without a rebate of interest upon the coupons, as to him may seem expedient, and he is hereby authorized to dispose of any gold in the Treasury of the United States, not necessary for the payment of interest on the public debt, provided that the obligation to create the Sinking Fund according to the Act of Feb. 25, 1862, shall not be impaired thereby."

THE UNEMPLOYED GENERALS.

The House resumed the consideration of the bill to drop from the rolls of the army unemployed general officers.

Mr. COX, of Ohio, (Dem.,) offered a proviso that whenever any officer comprehended in this act demand a Board of Inquiry, and who shall be willing to serve, that such board shall be convened, and if said board shall find him competent to command in the rank to which he is entitled, he shall be at once restored to active service, with full pay; and provided further, that all officers who have received the thanks of Congress during the present war shall be exempted from the operation of this act.

The bill was discussed at considerable length by Messrs. COX, KERNAN, FARNSWORTH and GARFIELD.

Without action on the bill, the House, at 4:30, adjourned.

FROM PORT royal.

Arrival of the Transport Daniel Webster.

The steam transport Daniel Webster, Capt. SHERMAN, from Port Royal, S. C., via Fortress Monroe, 72 hours, in ballast to United States Quartermaster, arrived this morning.

OUR JACKSONVILLE CORRESPONDENCE.

Occupation of Palatka—The Place to be Fortified and Held—Reinforcements Arriving.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., March 11, 1864.

Wednesday night, an expedition, under the command of Col. BARTON, embarked on board transports and proceeded up the St. John's River to Palatka—a distance of 60 miles from Jacksonville. At Palatka the troops were landed without any opposition whatever. Artillery accompanied the troops, and every preparation was made to fight the enemy in case he should dispute the possession of the place.

The intention is to fortify Palatka and hold it permanently. It is a town that was formerly occupied by about 500 inhabitants. At present, only a half dozen families are in the place. The buildings, gardens and groves are in excellent condition, not showing the usual indications of devastation and ruin. It would seem the families were forced to leave their homes by the rebel emissaries, who filled their ears with all sorts of nonsense regarding the treatment they would receive if they remained within our lines.

The town is nearly stripped of movable property. In peaceable times it was noted for its exports of cotton, tobacco and lumber. We are informed that a considerable quantity of cotton is in the surrounding country. At one point, 25 miles from Palatka, 3,000 bales of cotton are represented to be stored. All this property will be seized by our men and taken to a place of safety. This is not the first time Palatka has been visited by our men. At the occasion of a former expedition to Jacksonville, our troops went up the St. John's River as far as Enterprise.

The army transport Delaware left Palatka at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and arrived here at 8 P. M. the same day. On the passage down a woman approached the bank of the river and waved her handkerchief, evidently with a wish to be taken aboard, but it was impossible at that time to send a boat to her.

The night that was chosen for the expedition was extremely dark, and the rain fell in torrents. At intervals on the way rebel camp fires could be seen. Two gunboats preceded the transports, but they were not required to use their guns.

Col. GUY V. HENRY, with his light brigade, continues to do good service in watching the movements of the enemy in our immediate front. Since the skirmish that took place last week, in which the rebels were defeated, nothing of importance in the fighting line has occurred.

Reinforcements are constantly arriving.

WHIT.

The Engineers' Strike in Illinois.

CHICAGO, Wednesday, March 16.

The old engineers have resumed work on all the roads except the Rock Island, Alton, and St. Louis and Illinois Central. Upon these roads passenger trains are running as usual.

DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF.

Arrival of the Creole from New-Orleans—The Approaching State Convention.

The steamer Creole, from New-Orleans March 9, arrived at this port yesterday.

Our files by this arrival contain very little news.

The committee appointed by Gen. BANKS to consider the questions connected with the calling of a State Convention and the election of delegates, had reported, recommending 150 as the best number of representatives, the apportionment to be made by assigning one delegate to every 2,384 white inhabitants.

The propeller Dudley Burk came in collision with the Mexican steamer Algodon on the night of the 5th inst., about 30 miles below New-Orleans, and the latter vessel sunk in five minutes. No lives lost.

Gen. SHEPLEY had been presented with an elegant silver service by his friends in New-Orleans.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

The Committee appointed by Gen. BANKS to consider the questions connected with the calling of a State Convention and the election of delegates, has made its report, which appears in the New-Orleans papers. It gives the apportionment of delegates which it recommends each parish, and says:

We have concluded to recommend 150 as an appropriate number of delegates for the Convention. This was the number suggested by the Free State Committee, but few of whose suggestions in reference to the calling of a convention we have seen any occasion to change or differ from. Were all these delegates to be elected and to attend, the number would not be too great, considering the vastness of the interests involved and the importance of the present crisis, to fitly represent all localities and the varied interests of our population. It must be considered, also, that a representation cannot be counted on, although invited from parishes without the lines of the Union army; and this fact, with the usual contingencies of declension and absence from other causes, renders it improbable that a greater number than say a hundred will be in attendance out of the 150 assigned.

The number of white inhabitants by the census of 1860 was 357,629. There will be one delegate to 2,384 white inhabitants. We have arrived at the apportionment by assigning to each parish one delegate for every 2,384. Some few parishes have not the required number, but it is in accordance with all precedent that each parish should be allowed one representative. After going through this process with all the parishes in the State, the odd seats are assigned to those having the greatest surpluses or remainders, all of them exceeding half the number adopted as the representative divisor.

We are clearly of opinion that each delegate should have the qualifications of an elector—the right to vote in the district he may be elected to represent.

COLLISION.

From the New-Orleans Times, March 8.

The propeller Dudley Burk, Capt. BARTLETT, from Philadelphia 12th ult., via Port Royal and Key West, came in collision with the Mexican steamer Algodon, Capt. BYRNES, hence for Matamoras, on the night of the 5th inst., about thirty miles below the city, at 8¼ o'clock, through a mistake and not having the regulation lights. The Algodon struck the Dudley Burk on the starboard bow, causing the Algodon to sink in about five minutes. Capt. BYRNES and crew jumped into their boat immediately, without oars, and were picked up by the Dudley Burk's yawl, which was lowered immediately after the collision took place, and Capt. B. and his crew were brought on board and came up to this city.

The Algodon was a small steamer, fitted out at Algiers, and was intended by her owners as a freight lighter over the bar at Matamoras. She cleared for the above port with 175 barrels of flour and other produce.

FROM BERMUDA.

A Blockade-Runner Unable to Get Into Wilmington—The Will-o'-the-Wisp Beached—Admiral Hope at Bermuda.

HALIFAX, Wednesday, March 16.

The new blockade-runner steamer Floire arrived this morning from Bermuda in four days' passage, for repairs. She was unable to enter the port of Wilmington, and reports the blockade-runner Will-o'-the-Wisp beached off Wilmington.

ANDREW AINSWORTH,
Captain of the Port.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Tuesday, March 15.

There is rather more activity in business. Isthmus butter and sugars are very firm. Foreign and domestic spirits are unsettled. There have been extensive operations in alcohol, ales, &c. Goods are going to Oregon en route to Boyrs and the neighboring mines as rapidly as transportation facilities will permit. Telegraphic advices from Portland, Oregon, represent all steamers leaving for the Cascades as crowded with passengers and freight.

County Conventions to elect delegates to the State Convention were held throughout Oregon on the 12th. As far as heard from all passed resolutions indorsing the policy of the Government, and recommending the reëlection of ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

WILLIAM BALFIELD, late Indian Agent on Puget Sound, has been murdered by Indians on the northwestern coast of Vancouver's Island.

SAN FRANCISCO, Wednesday, March 16.

There was a fine shower of rain, accompanied with heavy thunder, throughout the State last night. The weather is showery to-day. Very heavy rains are required to revive and mature the crops of grain and hay.

The slight fall of rain has already caused a material decline in Breadstuffs. Wheat is quoted at $1 80@$1 90 per 100 lbs. Isthmus butter is firm at 37½c.

Some brass field pieces which had been ordered from Vallejo to Sacramento, were burned, with the warehouse containing them, on Monday night. The work was supposed to be the act or a secesh sympathizer. The Legislature has appointed a committee to investigate the matter.

Affairs in Colorado Territory.

DENVER CITY, Wednesday, March 16.

Spring immigration has already commenced. Trains are arriving, and the coaches from the States are full.

New discovered quartz lodes are reported daily, and cause an influx of Eastern capital, and machinery with improved process for saving gold.

A good supply of water from the heavy snows in the mountains, for mining and agricultural pursuits, make the prospects of Colorado bright for the coming season.

From Gov. EVANS, we hear of an Indian fight near Arkansas, between the Arrapahees, Cheyennes and Utes. The latter were victorious. We also learn that the Sioux have threatened war on the whites in the spring. The military authorities will take precautionary measures.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

Recent Military Operations in Virginia.

News from the Rebel Armies in Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama.

Progress of the Work of Funding the Rebel Currency.

We have received our usual files of Southern papers, the dates being up to the 14th instant, inclusive. The Richmond papers are quite mild in tone, having evidently expended all their fury on the recent operations of the National cavalry forces. We make the following extracts:

THE WAR IN VIRGINIA.

THE RECENT AFFAIR AT SUFFOLK.

From the Richmond Dispatch, March 14

Additional particulars of the fight at Suffolk last Wednesday show that it was a perfect rout of the enemy. Gen. RANSOM advanced on the town about 10 o'clock in the morning and chased in the negro pickets. A regiment of negro cavalry was stationed in the town, which dismounted after the first fire and scattered in all directions. Many were killed in the streets. Several took refuge in a house in the eastern part of the place, and refusing to surrender, the house was fired. One got out during the burning, discharging his musket at our men as he came out, He was instantly killed. The three who remained were consumed in the flames. The negroes were pursued to Jericho bridge, which they tore up after crossing. The whole affair seems to have been a race for life on the part of the "colored United States Cavalry." The camps and quartermaster stores were destroyed. Several of the negroes who enlisted in Suffolk were cut down at the very doors of their former masters. On Thursday morning a large force of Yankees came up, and some skirmishing took place this side of Suffolk. Our whole loss in the affair was three men. The enemy lost about thirty.

OFFICIAL DISPATCHES FROM GEN. PICKETT.

PETERSBURGH, March 10.

The following dispatch just received:

HEADQUARTERS, SUFFOLK, March 8, via WELDON, March 10, 1864.

The enemy occupied Suffolk in force on Sunday. We attacked them to-day, and after a short struggle drove them in a rout out of the town, killing a number, capturing one piece of artillery and a large quantity of commissary and quartermaster's stores. The enemy are flying to Portsmouth, burning bridges and leaving everything behind. We pursued beyond Bernard's Mills. M. W. RANSOM, Brig.-Gen.
G. E. PICKETT, Maj.-Gen.

THE FIGHT AT MANTAPIKE OR STEVENSVILLE.

From the Richmond Sentinel, March 10.

The late fight, in which DAHLGREN was killed, took place Wednesday night, at 12 o'clock, between Stevensville and Mantapike Landing, on the Mattapony, and on the Mantapike farm. It has been stated that the officers made their escape on the night of the fight, and before the surrender. Several of these were captured on a neighboring farm on Thursday night, where they were seeking food. Their names are Maj. E. T. COOKE, Second New-York, (had a Lieutenant-Colonel's commission in his pocket;) First Lieut. HENRY A. D. MERRITT, Fifth New-York, and First Lieut. R. BARTLEY, Signal Corps, United States. In the same party was an Irishman, M. E. HOGAN, Third Indiana, celebrated as a scout, who has been taken prisoner twice before; also privates THOS. WILLIAMS and JACOB LICHER.

RAID ON THE PENINSULA.

From the Richmond Dispatch, March 11.

Reports were received in the city yesterday of the appearance of a Yankee force on the Peninsula, which proved to be true. From passengers by the York River road yesterday afternoon, we get some particulars of this movement, which appears to be merely a raid for the destruction of property. On Monday last, three gunboats and six transports reached West Point, and sent ashore a body of infantry. They then proceeded up the Matiaponi River, and landed a body of troops, which marched to King and Queen Court-house. A passenger who came from Frazer's Ferry says that about daylight yesterday morning a conflagration was observed at the Court-house, six miles off, which was reported to be the burning of the Court-house and a mill near it. Shortly afterward a detachment of about 150 Yankees came to Frazer's Ferry and fired on some of our men who were there, but who succeeded in effecting their escape.

The reported burning of the Court-house is not credited by other passengers. They say that the Yankees came into the county on Monday and encamped at Mr ARMISTEAD'S farm, taking all his corn and provisions. That night they were fired into by some of our cavalry, and one of them was killed. They stayed Tuesday until 12 o'clock in the day, and then fell back below Hickory Ford. If the burning seen was done by them, they must have returned Tuesday night.

FROM NORTHERN VIRGINIA.

ORANGE COURT-HOUSE, Sunday, March 13.

THE WAR IN MISSISSIPPI.

THE ATTACK ON YAZOO CITY.

From the Richmond Despatch, March 12.

To S. Cooper, A. and I. General:

Gen. LEE telegraphs that Ross and RICHARDSON attacked Yazoo City on the 5th, capturing many stores, and destroying much cotton about being shipped. The enemy retired to the city and held it until reinforced. They were driven out of the city, which was recaptured while the stores were being destroyed. We have quite a number of prisoners. Our loss was about fifty killed and wounded. The enemy still occupy Yazoo City and Liverpool, and are intrenching at the latter place.

SHERMAN issued a general order at Canton, in which he speaks of many regiments in his army entitled to furloughs. L. POLK, Lieut.-Gen.

GEN. SHERMAN'S MARCH.

DEMOPOLIS, Ala., Monday, March 7.

A dispatch to Gen. JACKSON, dated Canton, 2d, says the enemy's army, with the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Corps, and between 25,000 and 30,000 infantry, and 1,500 cavalry, left Canton that morning, after remaining three days. SHERMAN reached there the 28th, remained six hours, and then pushed on to Vicksburgh, leaving MCPHERSON in command. He sent back nine couriers in great haste to MCPHERSON on the 29th, urging him to hasten to Vicksburgh, via Livingston and Brookville.

A large number of empty transports passed down the river to Vicksburgh, said to be for the purpose of taking SHERMAN'S army up the river. The enemy destroyed the railroad eight miles below Canton, and in the country burned houses and destroyed provisions. Over 200 of the enemy were killed or captured. Ross killed 55 out of 70 negro cavalry near Yazoo City. Several wagon trains were also taken. The enemy destroyed no railroad bridges. Cyphered dispatches were captured from the enemy's couriers. Transports are going down the Yazoo River.

THE WAR IN TENNESSEE.

Correspondence of the Savannah Republican, Feb. 22.

To-day a General Order from Division Headquarters announced to the soldiers of Gen. HOOD'S old division that Gen. BUCKNER had been assigned to its command. The order was issued by Gen. BUCKNER, who expressed himself highly honored in being appointed to lead these time-honored veterans, and as he placed implicit confidence in them he hoped they would give the same to him. Great satisfaction is manifested in this turn of our affairs, as no doubt the bickerings and ill-feelings of the coolest for the Major-Generalcy will now cease. Gen. BUCKNER is a very courteous gentleman, and does not want a name, which goes a long way in obtaining the confidence of the old soldier, who is always suspicious of one of whom no one has heard anything.

He has now a fair opportunity of displaying those qualifications which make the great Captain, if he has them, for there are no better troops in the Confederate Army to execute military plans than these he commands at present. We look forward with hope to at least a pleasant successor of our beloved Gen. HOOD, if not for one we can admire as ardently as him.

Everything is beginning to wear a busy and mysterified aspect, as if some movement of the enemy was influencing our own at present. Our pontoons had been laid across the Holston, two brigades of infantry thrown across, with some cavalry, toward Knoxville, to guard the work of the pioneers building a bridge over Flat Creek, on the way to Knoxville, and there were other signs of a forward movement. But yesterday the pontoons were taken up immediately after the infantry had been ordered back on this side, and sent on the cars back toward Morristown. To-day we are expecting orders to move after them on the same route; and rumors are afloat that the enemy has been reinforced and is moving a column up the valley beyond Clinch Mountain, to fall suddenly across the Holston up near Rogersville, on Gen. LONGSTREET'S rear. No doubt GRANT has discovered the necessity of removing this force from his left flank, before venturing to penetrate the interior of Georgia. This may be a step for that purpose, and Gen. LONGSTREET discovering it, is preparing to meet it.

Great numbers of the troops have reënlisted for the war, in the face of all the hardships and sufferings which are before them. Our admiration for such noble courage and fortitude cannot be expressed.

GEN. JONES' LATE CAPTURES.

From the Lynchburgh Republican.

The recent captures of Gen. WM. E. JONES, near Cumberland Gap, sum up—one Lieutenant-Colonel and Captain, both wounded; five Lieutenants and two hundred and seventeen privates, also six deserters from the Twenty-seventh Virginia Battalion, and twelve citizens; thirteen negroes—twelve men and one woman—six wagons and harness, two ambulances, twenty horses and one thrashing machine. The enemy's loss in killed, five; our loss, five killed—Capt. BURKS, Twenty-first Regiment, of Botetourt County; two privates of Co. K, Eighth Virginia Cavalry, one private of the Thirty-fourth Virginia Battalion, and one private, company and regiment not given.

THE WAR IN GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, Monday, March 7.

On Saturday morning HUMM'S Brigade of Cavalry attacked the Yankees twelve miles beyond Ringgold, and drove them from their position. The Yankees fled precipitately. We lost one man killed, and took seven prisoners.

It is well ascertained that the recent Yankee advance was made with the intention of a general attack. The enemy were much surprised to find Gen. JOHNSTON in such force. There are no present signs of a movement on the part of the Yankees.

THE PRISONERS.

FLAG OF TRUCE—ARRIVAL OF GEN. W. H. F. LEE.

From the Richmond Dispatch, Feb. 14.

A flag-of-truce boat arrived at City Point on Saturday afternoon, bringing up from Fortress Monroe six hundred and fifty-odd Confederate prisoners. Among the officers (about fifty in number) is Brig.-Gen. W. H. F. LEE, captured by a raiding party, while sick at his residence in Louisa County, some time last Summer, and since that time held as hostage for Capts. SAWYER and FLYNN, under sentence of death in retaliation for two Confederate officers who were hung in Kentucky by order of Gen. BURNSIDE, charging them with recruiting for the Confederate service within the Yankee lines.

Among the Yankee prisoners who will leave this morning for City Point on parole, as an offset for the number of Confederate prisoners now awaiting transportation from City Point to this city, are Gen. NEAL DOW, of Maine Liquor Law notoriety, and Capts. FLYNN and SAWYER, the two officers who were under sentence of death as noticed above.

MESSAGE FROM HIS HONOR THE MAYOR.

The following message was received from his Honor the Mayor, returning, without approval, resolution directing the Third-avenue Railroad Company to extend their tracks through certain streets:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW-YORK, March 9, 1864.

To the Honorable the Common Council:

GENTLEMEN: The preamble and resolutions authorizing the Third-avenue Railroad Company to lay tracks in certain streets of the City I herewith return, with my objections thereto.

The permission given this Company to run cars through the Third-avenue and other streets to the intersection of Park-row and Broadway is founded on a grant of the Corporation in one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two. I cannot, however, assent to the conclusion that this Company possesses the exclusive right to run cars on the Third-avenue, as set forth in the preamble.

Such an acknowledgment would, in effect, surrender the rights of the Corporation under its charters to the regulation and control of the streets, so far as the Third-avenue Railroad Company is concerned. The grant is a license limited and conditional, and not an exclusive monopoly.

The privileges enjoyed by the company is one that depends on the convenience of the public, and nothing can be more erroneous than the supposition that a franchise of this character was or could be granted in perpetuity to a private corporation.

The permission now sought to be given to the Third-avenue Company by the Common Council to lay tracks and operate them in certain streets is in contravention of the act of the Legislature "relative to Railroads in the City of New-York," passed January thirty, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, for it cannot be pretended that the company had any valid grant to lay tracks at the time stated in said act, in the streets enumerated in the resolutions.

The extension of the track through Sixty-sixth-street, or Seventeenth-street to Fifth-avenue, crossing the line of Fourth-avenue, on which steam is used as a motive power, by the Harlem and the New Haven Companies, is, in my judgment, attended with great danger to life.

I fail to perceive any increased accommodation to the public in extending the track of the Third-avenue road, through Chambers-street to Broadway, while the running of cars will interfere with business in the New Court-house, now in process of erection at the northern line of the Park, at an enormous expense.

The occupation of One Hundred and Thirtieth-street, between Third and Fourth avenues, is also at ended with no public advantage, but is solely for the benefit of the company, which will thus be enabled to dispense with the purchase of land, and the erection of a depot, at or near the terminus, for the purpose of containing its cars.

I would further state that this company, engaging as it does a most lucrative business, has no disposition to comply with the regulations of the Common Council, or pay anything, in the shape of license fees or otherwise, for the valuable franchise it possesses. The liberal offer of the Harlem Railroad Company affords a contrast to the policy pursued by the Third-avenue Company in this respect.

C. GODFREY GUNTHER, Mayor.

It was received, laid on the table for ten days, directed to be entered at length in the minutes, and published in the papers employed by the Corporation.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The President announced the special order of business, being the report of the Committee on Finance, with an ordinance making the general appropriations for one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

Receipts of Petroleum, 2149 bbls. The week's business in Petroleum Messrs. TURNER & GREIVES review thus: "The market has continued excited and irregular during the week under review, partly in consequence of the advance in Gold to 169½, enabling exporters to execute their orders, but chiefly on account of the legislation in Congress, whereby the internal revenue is to be 10 cents ℔ gallon on Crude, and 25 cents ℔ gallon on Refined, with no allowance for drawback on the former. The decline in Gold subsequently to 161 has checked the buoyancy, but holders remain very strong at our quoted rates; but the export demand has for the moment ceased. Our Petroleum correspondent at Titusville, Penn., under date of March 11, 1864, reports as follows:

"The market here remained the same as in my last report until to day, when it dropped to 34 75. I know that Oil has been accumulating on the creek for the last two weeks, as there has been very little moved away. We are having natural water to-day, and considerable Oil will go out. NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

We have received our usual files of Southern papers, including dates as late as the 14th inst. They are not so lively or interesting as usual, evidently having to take time to concoct some new tale of horror with which to "fire the Southern heart." To succeed their frenzy over the Kilpatrick raid, Gen. Polk telegraphed the rebel War Department gleefully when he found Gen. Sherman had got back across the Big Black. Military operations everywhere are quite dull with the enemy. Johnston is quiescent at Dalton, Longstreet is in statu quo in East Tennessee, Lee is enjoying his Winter stupor in his old position; Polk is safe at Demopolis, on the east side of the Tombigbee, with several other formidable streams of water between him and Sherman, and the valiant Finnegan has simmered down into the Florida swamps. The rebel currency was being funded at the rate of about one million per day, time expiring April 1st, and six hundred millions to fund. Charleston was receiving its daily chronic dose of shells.

The steamer Creole, from New-Orleans March 9, arrived at this port yesterday. Our files by this arrival contain little news. The committee appointed by Gen. Banks to consider the questions connected with the calling of a State Convention and the election of delegates, had reported, recommending 150 as the best number of representatives, the apportionment to be made by assigning one delegate to every 2,384 white inhabitants. The propeller Dudley Buck came in collision with the Mexican steamer Algodon on the night of the 5th inst., about 30 miles below New-Orleans, and the latter vessel sunk in five minutes. No lives lost.

Commander Selfridge, of the gunboat Conestoga, in a letter addressed to Admiral Porter, says that a detachment of 200 negro troops have been stationed at Waterproof, La., making it a depot for negroes, cattle, &c. This aroused the indignation of the rebels, and on the 14th of February a force of about 800 cavalry, of Hamion's command, made an attack upon the post, driving in the pickets and pressing the troops very hard. By the assistance of the gunboats Forest Rose and Rattler, the rebels were defeated, both on that day and in a subsequent attack the day following.

On the night of the 9th inst., an expedition left Jacksonville, Fla., proceeded up the St. John's River, and captured the town of Pilatka, a distance of sixty miles from Jacksonville. The place is to be fortified and held by our troops. Large amounts of cotton are represented as being stored in that vicinity.

Maj. McMichael, Assistant Adjutant-General of the Army of the Cumberland, arrived in Philadelphia last evening, direct from Chattanooga. He reports our Western army in the finest condition. News of Gen Grant's promotion was received with great enthusiasm.

Gen. Sherman telegraphs to Gen. Grant the particulars of his late expedition. He did the enemy immense damage, but the reason of his retrograde movement was the failure of the cavalry column to join him at Meridian, where it was to be Feb. 10.

Our Washington dispatches state that notwithstanding persistent denials, Gen. Meade is to be superseded, and that the order effecting it, and naming his successor, will shortly be issued.

The Marine Brigade on the Mississippi, under Capt. Crandall, recently surprised a rebel camp at Port Gibson, Miss., and captured forty-seven rebel soldiers.

FROM EUROPE.

The steamship Arabia, from Liverpool, March 5, via Queenstown the 6th, arrived at Halifax last evening. Her news is two days later. The Alexandra case would probably be taken up in the English House of Lords before the Easter vacation. In the House of Commons on the 3d, Mr. S. Lefevre had made a speech strongly denouncing the proceedings of the British Government in allowing the rebel cruisers to escape, and contending that all such vessels should be prohibited from entering British ports; and if they did, British cruisers should detain them. There had been no further fighting in Denmark; but the latest telegrams announce that the allies had resolved to further invade Jutland, and that their armies were on the march to invest Frederica. Napoleon's remonstrance to Prussia against the invasion was reported to be much more mild than that of England. Maximilian arrived in Paris on the 5th, and all preliminaries being settled, he would leave for Mexico on the 25th inst.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, yesterday, a large number of petitions were presented for increased railroad and mail facilities between New-York and Washington. Mr. Howard introduced a bill for the reorganization of the Invalid Corps, and Mr. Wilson introduced a bill to disqualify for voting or holding office all deserters who are beyond the limits of the United States, but directs the President to issue a proclamation of amnesty dependent upon their return to the service, with no punishment but loss of pay during their absence or their reënlistment in new regiments. Deserters hereafter are to be deprived of these rights of citizenship. The Senate then took up and passed the Diplomatic Appropriation Bill, and then proceeded to consider District of Columbia matters, which occupied its attention until adjournment.

In the House, yesterday, Mr. Farnsworth introduced a bill to increase the efficiency of the United States artillery, which was referred. The House concurred in the Senate's amendments to the Post-office Appropriation Bill. The Gold Bill was then taken up, and after a brief debate passed, ayes 85, nays 57. The resolution, as passed, provides that the Secretary of the Treasury may anticipate the payment of interest on the public debt by a period not exceeding one year, from time to time, either with or without a rebate of interest, and he may dispose of any gold in the Treasury of the United States, not necessary for the payment of interest, provided that the obligation to create the sinking fund, according to the Act of Feb. 25, 1862, shall not be impaired thereby. The House then took up the bill to drop unemployed general officers from the rolls, which was discussed at length, but without action. The House adjourned.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

In the State Senate, yesterday, bills were introduced relative to the inspection of public buildings in New-York; authorizing corporations to increase the nominal amount of their capital stock; to amend the Charter of Brooklyn; the Manhattan-square Bill, reported adversely yesterday, was recommitted. Bills were noticed relative to abandoning contracts for local improvements in New-York; to amend the charter of the Market Savings Bank of New-York; to amend the charter of the Society for the Reformation of Juvenile Delinquents of New-York. Bills were introduced to amend the law relative to the Harlem Bridge; confirming the acts of the New-York Board of Supervisors relative to damages by the riots there.

In the Assembly, bills were passed for the erection of a monument to the memory of the New-York Volunteers who fell at the battle of Gettysburgh; legalizing certain resolutions of the New-York Common Council. In the evening the special order was the Governor's Message, which was discussed by several gentlemen.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Board of Councilmen yesterday concurred in adopting the resolutions granting a plot of land on Ward's Island to "The Society for the Protection of Destitute Roman Catholic Children," the grant to be ratified by the Legislature, at the present or any subsequent session. Messrs. Jacques and Opdyke strenuously opposed and voted against the resolutions, on the ground that it was in contravention of the charter to make a grant of its property, unless through a sale at public auction, and that to pre-grant a title to be confirmed by higher authority, was illogical and bad legislation. The board also cocurred in authorizing the creation of eight Assistant Engineers of the Fire Department, in addition to the thirteen now acting, but with an amendment to the ordinance that four serve below and four above Fourteenth-street. The Finance Committe reported the City Appropriation Bill, and it was laid over. They report changes in it as follows: Strike out items for improvements at Hell Gate, East River, $40,000; resetting monument stones, $40,000; lithographing and binding Manual, $20,000; working Eighth-avenue, $10,000; and damages by powder explosion, $40,000; reduce items for salaries, City Inspector's Department, $13,772; wells and pumps, $1,000; increase items for Central Park, $20,000; donations (for House of Mercy,) $5,000; fire machines and apparatus, $45,000; Board of Education, $100,000; sewers, repairing and cleaning, $10,000; streets, repairing and repairs, $40,000; water-pipes and laying, $23,250; wharves, piers and slips, (of which $30,000 for dredging,) $65,000. Total decrease, $174,772; total increase, $308,250—nett increase, $133,478. The board adjourned to 1 o'clock P. M. on Saturday.

Comptroller Brennan has accepted the resignation of William E. Warren as Deputy Comptroller, and appointed Richard A. Storrs to fill the vacancy. Mr. Warren has been chosen President of the International Fire Insurance Company. Mr. Storrs has been the first assistant book-keeper in the Finance Department since 1857.

At a meeting of the New-York County Medical Society, held Tuesday evening, the report of a committee appointed at a previous meeting to urge the Legislature to pass the Health Bills now before that body was read. After discussion, the report was laid on the table.

Vigorous measures were taken yesterday to at once dispatch vessels in search of the disabled Italian man-of-war spoken by the Star of the West. Five steamers will sail to-day.

Hon. William McMurray visited Albany yesterday to be sworn in as Police Commissioner. If he returns in time to-day the new board will organize.

Flour and Wheat were a shade cheaper and dull yesterday. Corn was heavy. Rye, Barley, Cotton and Provisions were essentially unchanged. Whisky was in more demand. Groceries, Oils and Metals were less active. Freights were quiet, with 436 vessels of all classes in port. A number of Government contracts for Breadstuffs, Provisions and Groceries were awarded.

The Stock Market was active and generally firm yesterday. Money easy. Gold 163¼@160¼, closing 161 at 4 o'clock.

Public Debt and Private Expenditure—The Peril of the Times.

We spoke yesterday of the huge proportions and rapid increase of the public debt as one of the circumstances, perhaps the circumstance, which just now contributes most powerfully to create and spread despondency as to the result of the war. People have up to the present managed to quiet their apprehensions on this score by a sort of blind reliance on the borrowing powers of the Government, and by the insane notion that the entire property of the country could be and was "pledged" for payment of all debts it might contract. A good many writers, who ought to have known better, helped to propagate this delusion, until it at last became quite common to see the difference between the total amount of the public debt, and the estimated value of the real and personal property of the people of the North, gravely set down as a fund on which we could draw for the prosecution of the war to the last cent, as if any people ever consented to the confiscation of all their possessions for the payment of any collective liability, or as if any such measure was physically possible.

We are glad to see that we are at last beginning to wake up to a more vivid sense of the situation, and that the disposition to resort to heavy taxation is rapidly increasing. It is greatly to be regretted that the taxes on luxuries have not been during the past year and a half quadrupled. It would not simply have made a large addition to the revenue, but have restrained the worst and most alarming tendency of the times—the tendency to reckless prodigality in expenditure. The number of people who are looking about for means of serving their country without going to the war is just now prodigious. There never was a time when it was easier to raise money for patriotic or personal objects. Funds for the Sanitary Commission—for the levy of negro regiments—for the relief of Southern refugees—for the relief of soldiers' families—for the diffusion of loyal publications, are always forthcoming in abundance, and the humbler persons, who are ready and willing to devote their time and attention to the furtherance of any enterprise likely to benefit the nation at large, is unprecedentedly great.

This being the case, we cannot help thinking that a movement for the purpose of checking and discountenancing lavish and wasteful expenditure, if initiated under good auspices, could hardly fail to have at least a certain measure of success, and we know of nothing more desirable. It is not generally understood, but it cannot be too strongly impressed upon the public, that the sinking of money in expensive furniture, equipages, shawls, and wines and other luxuries and costly amusements of all kinds, is just as much a waste of the national resources as if it were thrown into the river. These are things which ought to come out of surplus income; but as a nation, we have now no surplus income. All that we do not need for necessaries, we do need to use as capital in the further development of our resources, in producing more commodities for sale, or sustenance, or, in other words, in providing for the support of the war, the payment of the public debt, and the maintenance of the national honor. If I have a thousand dollars, for which I have no immediate use, and I spend it in dinners or wines, or costly furniture or clothing, or anything else which by my use of them are destroyed, it is just as much lost to the country as if it were burnt up. If, on the contrary, I save and invest it in mines or mills, or railroads or farming, it is used to employ laborers who are actually engaged in adding to the national wealth, in producing them food, or more clothing, or more copper or gold or iron, or in bringing them to market, and I thus help to add to the store from which we shall have to draw for the support of our armies, the payment of our taxes, and on which we must rely for the means of future progress.

Our production, as it is now, is very great, but it cannot be too great, if the public burdens are to increase at their present ratio. Every nerve ought to be strained by every one of us, therefore, to confine his expenditure as far as possible to necessaries, and to devote the surplus to the employment of productive labor. There is a notion very prevalent that rich people are doing the State service by spending money, no matter how, and that as long as laborers are employed, it matters not what they are doing; but there cannot be a greater delusion. Every cent spent for articles of personal consumption is so much withdrawn from the capital of the country and lost; and a laborer employed in producing the means of paying for champagne is of no more benefit to the public than if he were paid for drinking it himself. In short, we ought at present to be more economical in our habits and plainer in our style of living than at any period of our history. The fact is that we were never so wildly extravagant. A thousand millions have in the last two years been spent in war; and, as if this were not sufficiently large, numbers of the public seem to be engaged every day in taxing their ingenuity to discover means of expending millions more in personal indulgence, often of the most absurd and fantastic kind. It would be foolish, we know, though not inappropriate, to ask people to live more plainly than formerly; but it is not foolish or visionary to expect them to live as plainly. It would be vastly more profitable, and certainly more becoming, to do so. And much may be done to bring about a better state of things by a little self-denial on the part of wealthy persons of sufficient intelligence and education to see what the dangers of the present crisis are, and sufficient moral force to set an example in providing against them.

Kentucky Slaves and the Draft.

Kentucky is in a ferment over the Congressional bill making slaves liable, in the same manner as white men, to the national military service. She clamors that this enactment is an invasion of her State sovereignty—an unconstitutional interference with her domestic institutions. Some of her hot-heads rave as if really purposing to make common cause with the rebellion, or, at least, to relapse into neutrality, unless Kentucky is spared the application of this measure.

This excitement may be natural enough, but it is grossly unreasonable. It does not come from a clear understanding at all, but from a blind devotion to the institution of Slavery. Such devotion is a constitutional right, so long as it is not indulged at the expense of other States; but Kentucky insists upon just that sort of indulgence. She virtually demands that the white men of other States shall do her share, or the main part of her share, of the fighting, rather than oblige her to use her black men, in default of white ones. She is twenty thousand behind in her quota, under the October and February drafts. There is but the slightest prospect that this deficiency can ever be supplied by white men; and none at all that the still further call, just made, can be supplied. The truth is, that the material is not there. Nearly all the able-bodied white population of Kentucky, between the ages designated in the Enrollment Bill, are already either in the rebel army, or in the national army. There have been promises, we know, by prominent Kentuckians—we believe by Gov. Bramlette himself—that the quota of the State should be raised in white men, if time were given. Undoubtedly honest efforts have been made to that end. But they have almost completely failed. At the rate in which new enlistments have been made in Kentucky within the last five months, it would take her years to meet the President's requisitions. She would not have her last regiment in the field until long after the rebellion will be dead, and a stench in every Southern man's nostrils. To leave her to her own movements would be practically to leave her at least half out of the fight.

If Kentucky is to supply her quota in season at all, it must be supplied, in part at least, by her slaves. The law which requires her slaves, as well as all slaves everywhere, to be embraced within the draft, instead of being a violation of the rights of Kentucky, is an indispensable act of justice to other States. It is absurd to call it unconstitutional. So far as slaves are persons, the Constitution makes no distinction between persons in regard to military service due the Government. All that is left to be regulated by Congress at its discretion. So far as slaves are property, the Constitution expressly prescribes and authorizes the taking of private property for public use with compensation; and compensation is specially provided for in the Congressional act. There never was a more monstrous pretension than that a Kentucky slave is neither a man to be drafted nor property to be touched, but a tertium quid, within the limits of the land, to be sure, yet absolutely beyond the reach of the national arm.

It is the first duty of the National Government to save itself from destruction; and there is no earthly possibility of its doing this but by filling its armies through drafts made upon the respective States. It has no right to make distinctions between these States—to shift burdens upon a portion that ought to be borne equally by all. It has no right to give Kentucky credit for the number of her young men who are fighting in the rebel armies against its life. It has no right, when it fixes a day for a draft to be made, to arrange that a certain State shall have an extension of time which is not in like manner granted to all the States. Kentucky is entitled to no favors which Maryland, or New-York, or Ohio may not also receive. It is her business to supply her quota at the time due, and if she cannot do it in the way she would like, then to do it in the way she can. The process may injure her darling system of Slavery, but that is no reason for her not fulfilling her national duty. She cannot make it a reason without giving proof that her professed loyalty is a hollow mockery.

Gov. Bramlette's address, on the subject, to the people of his State, which we publish this morning, though in some degree countenancing the idea that injustice has been done Kentucky, is yet law-abiding, and calculated to promote calmer and more loyal counsels. With a little reflection, the State, once so pure and beyond reproach will realize that the undue exemptions she has been practically demanding, are altogether unworthy of her—that it would be disgraceful for her to plead her ownership of men as a bar against her full service to the flag which must fall forever, unless it has men.

North Carolina.

Gov. Vance, of North Carolina, delivered recently a speech of immense length, which we find in our Richmond files received yesterday. It is an argument against the party in North Carolina—and we judge from the admissions in this speech that the party is very strong in numbers, if not dominant—who desire to have a State Convention called, for the purpose, as Gov. Vance says, of "seceding from the Southern Confederacy and repudiating the whole thing." His grounds of opposition to this are chiefly these three: Firstly, that it would be useless to secede from the Confederacy; secondly, that it would be dangerous; thirdly, that it can't be done.

"Now," says he, "permit me to ask you what it was that got you into this scrape? Why, you all know that it was the fact of your secession in the first instance. Suppose you were sick of typhoid fever, and had been close to death's door; and, becoming convalescent, the physician should gravely inform you that the only plan to effect your entire recovery, would be to take another spell of the infernal fever? Would you not think he was a fool? [Laughter.] Secession was tried after it had been considered for a period of forty years, and the whole country understood it as completely as an abstraction could be understood. We were promised it should be peaceable. What is the result? Why, it has been everything else. It has involved us in a war that has no parallel upon the pages of history. Do you expect to find a remedy by a repetition of the dose that brought you to bed?"

Gov. Vance demolishes the keystone of the Southern Confederacy, the right of Secession, in a very unceremonious style.

"I can assure you, my fellw-citizens," says he, "that secession from the Confederacy will involve you in a new war, a bloodier conflict than that you now deplore. 'But,' you may say, Mr. Davis and his Government will not dare to make war on a seceding State, because the right of secession is recognized in the Constitution of the Confederacy.' So it is, my friends; but you see by that time you have thrown off the Constitution, you have gotten from under its obligations and sworn you would have nothing to do with it. Do you expect the Confederacy to be bound by a document you refuse to recognize as affecting yourselves? So soon as you annouuce to the world you are a sovereign and independent nation, as a matter of course the Confederacy has the right of declaring war against you for sufficient cause, equally with the right she holds of declaring war against England, France, or Holland. This right is inherent in all sovereignties."

Gov. Vance appeals to the fears of the people. He shows them that if they resolve to leave the Jeff. Davis concern, the whole State will be made a field of battle and blood. Gen. Lee, he says, would send down his veterans, who would fall mercilessly upon a State which had abandoned the South; while, he adds, "Old Abe would send his troops here also, because we would no longer be neutral; and so, if you will pardon the expression, we would catch the devil on all sides." The extent of the disaffection prevailing may be judged from the grimly facetious remark of this rebel Governor, that if every man in that county (Wilkes) who "had used abusive language toward Jeff. Davis and the Confederate Government were to be put in jail, he would have to address his entire audience through the prison bars." And the following question and answer which occurs in the course of the speech, will exhibit the deep and irrepressible longing which pervades every part of the State:

"Now, what is it you desire above all other present earthly good? [Voices—'Peace,' 'peace,' 'we all want peace.'] I know you do."

It was in great measure the geographical position of North Carolina that carried her out of the Union into the Confederacy, and it is the same accident that keeps her in the Confederacy. If she or her population had existed, or could now be transferred, west of the mountains, or north of the Potomac, the rebellion within her limits would have been a very limited affair.

The Quota of Rhode Island Full.

Providence, Wednesday, March 16.

Gov. Smith has issued a proclamation declaring our quota, under the last call of the President, to be full already.

THE WAR ON THE MISSISSIPPI.

Sharp Fight at Waterproof, La—Cotton Captured and Destroyed—Rebels Captured near Port Hudson.

Washington, Wednesday, March 16.

Admiral Porter incloses a communication from Lieut.-Commander Thos. O. Selfridge, of the Conestoga, in which he states that, learning there was a large amount of cotton belonging to the rebel Government under a small guard of soldiers not far from where Old River intersects the main levee, he landed on the morning of the 13th of February, with 45 seamen and some contrabands.

After marching six miles he found the cotton, and would have captured the guard but for the accidental explosion of a musket. On his way back he was considerably annoyed by Texan cavalry.

He captured thirty-two bales of cotton, twenty mules and several horses, and captured, as prisoners, Col. C. H. Tyler, Maj. J. R. O'Brien, of the rebel provisional army. The day before, he destroyed twenty-four hogsheads of sugar about Cross River, which was too bulky to take on board. The Navy Department has received a communication from Admiral Porter, in which he incloses one from Lieut.-Commander Green, on the United States steamer Rattler, off Hurricane Island, Feb. 15.

He says: "I have informed you in a previous letter that a detachment of 200 negro troops have been stationed at Water Proof, making it a depot for negroes, cattle, &c.

This has aroused the indignation of the rebels, and on the 14th a force of about 800 cavalry, of Hannon's command, made an attack upon the post, driving in the pickets and pressing the troops very hard. Fortunately for them the Forest Rose, Capt. Johnson immediately opened a rapid fire on them, which drove them back. He got his vessel under way, and shelled the enemy wherever his guns would bear. They hastily retreated to the woods. This lasted from 3 to 5:30 P. M. At eight o'clock the enemy attempted to make a dash into the town, but Capt. Johnson, who was well posted as to their approach, drove them back.

Eight dead rebels and five prisoners were left in our hands. Our loss was five killed and two wounded. Capt. Johnson says some of the negroes fought well, but for want of proper discipline, the majority did not.

Lieut.-Commander Green arrived with the Rattler after the fighting was over. He then proceeded to Natchez, reported the facts to Commander Post, and asked him to send up reinforcements.

The next morning he dispatched 200 men and some howitzer ammunition to Water Proof. Upon arriving at Water Proof on the 15th, he found that in the morning the enemy, who had been reinforced in the night, and whose forces now consisted of two regiments of infantry and one of cavalry, and four pieces of artillery, had again attacked the post.

The Forest Rose, whose Commander was ever on the alert, was ready for them. A few well-directed shells stopped them from planting their battery on the Plank Road, and drove them off in confusion.

The attempts of the remainder to advance were frustrated by the Forest Rose.

Capt. Johnson says that Capt. Anderson asked repeatedly for me to take his troops on board and throw them across the river, while in every request, he, (Johnson, declined, and could only tell him to fight. After I got the enemy to retreat, he felt more easy, and discontinued his requests to cross.

I do not think Capt. Anderson was intimidated, but by the bad discipline of his officers and the incapacity of his men he became panic-stricken.

The ram Switzerland arrived about the close of the fight and joined them.

The rebel loss, as far as known, was seven killed, a number wounded, who were taken off, and several prisoners, among them a Lieutenant, who were taken to Harrison. Our loss was three killed and twelve wounded. In the two days' fight, the Forest Rose expended 270 shells. Under date of Feb. 16, he says:—I have received a dispatch from Capt. Johnson dated the 15th, at 10 o'clock P. M., which says the rebels have made another and a final attack upon Water Proof. He sent a few shells which caused them to retire. They retreated toward Harrisonburgh, burning the bridges behind them. The rebels cannot stand the fire of the gunboats.

Later he says everything is quiet, but they have information that the rebels are making preparations for an attack on the Contraband Camp, opposite Vicksburgh. The negro troops at Water Proof, have been committing many outrages.

REPORTS FROM MEMPHIS.

Memphis, Monday, March 14.

Advices from Vicksburgh to the 10th say that the troops are on the qui vive, preparing for another grand expedition. The troops are in excellent spirits and eager for marching orders.

There was quite a battle at Yazoo City on the 5th, between the negro troops stationed there and a large force of rebels, who made an attack upon the place. The rebels gained possession of part of the city, but the gunboats coming up, opened fire upon them, encouraging the negroes, who charged and drove the rebels back. Our loss was slight. The rebel loss is unknown.

Gen. Veatch and Staff arrived here to-day. He is en route for Gen. Dodge's Division at Huntsville, Ala.

Upward of 5,000 bales of cotton arrived from below yesterday. Receipts by wagons continue large.

Cairo, Wednesday, March 16.

Gen. Sherman and Staff passed through here to-day, en route for Louisville.

The steamers Lancaster, Celeste and Silver Wave were fired into recently on the White River. One man was killed and one wounded.

The Expedition to Yazoo City.

From the Memphis Bulletin, March 12.

We learn from the steamer War Eagle that the expedition sent up the Yazoo River at the time Sherman moved from Meridian, has resumed from Vicksburgh. It was composed of the Eleventh Illinois, Colonel Coates, and a negro regiment. The expedition reached Fort Pemberton and returned to Yazoo City, where he disembarked his command and sent his boats to Vicksburgh loaded with cotton. While awaiting the return of his boats he was attacked in Yazoo City by two brigades of rebel cavalry. A very desperate fight ensued, lasting from ten o'clock in the morning until 4 P. M. on Saturday. At times the fight was hand to hand in the streets. The rebels were finally repulsed, and the boats returned on Tuesday. Col. Coates reëmbarked with his command and returned to Vicksburgh. Our loss was eighteen killed; that of the enemy much greater. An officer from Admiral Porter's fleet gives the following particulars of the late expedition up Ouchita River. The expedition consisted of the gunboats Ouchita, Osage, Conestoga, Lexington, Hindman and Cricket. No signs of the enemy were seen until approaching Trinity, which was found strongly fortified. The iron-clad Osage, was in advance and allowed to pass without any demonstration on the part of the rebels. Flagship Hineman, tin-clad, followed, and the rebels supposing her a transport, opened a heavy and destructive fire on her, which she bore for some time, but was compelled to retire with two men killed and eight wounded, the boat being badly used up. The Ouchita then came up and soon silenced the enemies guns, and drove the rebels from the town.

Our forces landed and destroyed a large amount of property, including three thirty-two pounders The fleet then steamed up to Harrisonburgh, drove the enemy from their batteries and destroyed the town.

The expedition was a splendid success in every respect.

Twenty-seven iron-clads are now lying at the mouth of Red River, ready for the coming expedition up that stream.

The gunboat Conestoga was sunk by the General Price on the 10th inst. She had on board a full cargo of ammunition, which, with the boat, was a total loss.

Rebel Treatment of our Prisoners.

No. 247 Broadway, New-York, 12th March, 1864.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

There appears in this morning's issue of the Times, several statements, made under the authority of Lieut.-Col. James M. Sanderson, one of the recently exchanged prisoners from rebeldom, that reflect on all those made by other officers who have either of late been exchanged, or escaped, and who have given to the public facts in regard to the treatment of our unfortunate soldiers in the power of rebels at Richmond, Va. As an officer, who for eight months suffered from their treatment, I feel it my duty to refute the statement of Col. Sanderson, and to give the following as the exact amount of rations issued to officers confined at Libby Prison, or was at the time of my escape therefrom, the 29th of January last. The facts are simply and precisely these: 1 quart of rice, (issued raw,) to sixteen men, once in eight days; ½ loaf of corn bread, (8 ounces,) made of unsifted meal, each day; 4 ounces of the poorest fresh meat once in from five and seven days; very rarely a little salt and vinegar.

This statement will, I know, if necessary, be verified by such men as Cols. A. D. Streight, Bartleson, Boyd, and hosts of others.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

JOHN F. PORTER, Jr.,
Captain United States Volunteers.

Concert for the Fair.—On Friday evening last, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Drew opened their house for a grand concert given by Signor Antonio Barili and his pupils for the Methodist Episcopal Union in aid of the Metropolitan Fair. The ladies are under great obligations to Signor Barili and his pupils for their gratuitous services. The concert proved a great success. A handsome sum will be realized.

FROM ALBANY.

Broadway Railroad Bill—The Pay of Judges—The Sale of Liquors on Sunday.

Correspondence of the New-York Times:

Albany, Wednesday, March 16, 1864.

The merits and demerits of the Broadway Railroad Bill were argued before the Senate Railroad Committee last evening. Horace F. Clark spoke for the Harlem Road Company, and Messrs. Dean and Hilton against the company and the bill. Mr. Clark represented the condition of Broadway as becoming desperate for the lack of proper facilities to convey passengers. All private vehicles were already excluded by the rush of eight hundred omnibuses, and unless some railroad company should be permitted to come to the rescue with street cars, there was no knowing in what this state of things would finally result. Mr. Hilton intimated in substance that Broadway would much prefer, if agreeable to the Harlem Road Company, not to be rescued by street cars. It would be a desecration of "dear old Broadway," of which every New-Yorker is proud, to give it up to the tender mercies of a company that carry passengers as calves are carried in a butcher's cart. This comparison, it is proper to state, was suggested by Mr. Clark, and though adopted by his opponent, it would be injustice to the parties not to mention the source from which it originated.

Mr. Dean only spoke in behalf of certain property-holders on Madison-avenue, and did not oppose the company or the bill generally, or on general grounds. The arguments, on the whole, were spicy, and to some extent personal, and well repaid those who crowded the Committee room (the Senate Chamber on this occasion) to hear it.

The Assembly, last evening, after protracted debate, killed the bill providing to equalize the pay of Judges of Court of Appeals and Justices of the Supreme Court. It appeared that to give compensation or bounty to said Justices, who were in office in 1857, and could not therefore receive an increase of pay under the act passed that year, and which has applied to those subsequently elected, would be an expense to the State of $96,000. The House took the view that these Justices accepted their offices, knowing what their salary was to be, and the Constitutional restriction which would prevent its increase. They had no claim, therefore, to be placed on an equality, in regard to salary, with those subsequently elected.

The bill in relation to the appointment of certain attendants on the Court of Appeals has been amended by the Senate Committee, so as to give the power of appointing to the Secretary of State, and in that form ordered to third reading.

A lively debate occurred in the Senate this morning on the question of prohibiting by additional enactment the sale of vinous, spirituous and malt liquors on Sunday. Senator Fields moved to except malt liquors from the prohibition in the bill before the Senate. Senator Shafer opposed this proposition to amend. He thought it very unfair to give the rotund German his lager bier on Sunday, and at the same time refuse to grant the gay and rollicking Irishman the privilege of moistening his lips with whisky. Other Senators discussed the amendment and the bill on strictly moral grounds, urging the passage of the bill. Senator Fields expressed himself as having very little regard for these professions of high moral sentiment. He represented his constituents, morally as well as politically, and when he ceased to do so he would resign his seat. He would represent their views, and not fall back on personal principles, because the subject was capable of a moral aspect.

The amendment was lost. A sharp debate upon the general merits of the bill is in progress as I close my letter.

THE ENLISTMENT OF SLAVES IN KENTUCKY.

Address of Gov. Bramlette.

Louisville, Wedesday, March 16.

Gov. Bramlette has issued the following address to the people of Kentucky:

"Fellow Citizens: In view of the disturbance of the popular mind produced by the enlistment of slaves for the army in Kentucky, it is deemed prudent to make the following suggestions for the benefit and guidance of the loyal people of Kentucky.

Your indignation should not move you to commit acts of violence nor to unlawful resistance. Standing as we have stood, and will ever stand, "for the Constitution, the Union and the enforcement of the laws," we must repel the efforts of the rebellion to overthrow our Government by our gallant soldiers in the field, and meet and correct unjust or unconstitutional legislation, by legal appeals to the constituted tribunals of the Government, and through the ballot-box in the constituted modes.

This is the only true mode of maintaining the Constitution, the Union and enforcement of the laws.

The mere act of enrolling the names of slaves does not affect any right of the citizen. No draft has been ordered, nor do we know that a draft will be ordered. It may or it may not. We should abide by and maintain the law, and pursue the modes provided for the remedy it affords.

If any violence or wrong to the person or property of the citizens be committed by any officer or soldier against the known laws of the land, make your accusation in the mode prescribed by law; and if the commanding officer refuses or neglects to use the utmost endeavors to arrest the officers or soldiers under his command, so accused, and hand him or them over to the civil magistrate for trial, when officially advised of the facts, the Executive of the State will prefer charges and demand a court-martial for the trial of the offenders.

In the Union, under the Constitution, and in accordance with law, assert and urge your rights.

It is our duty to obey the law until it is declared by judicial decision to be unconstitutional.

The citizens whose property may be taken under it for public use will be entitled, under the imperative mandate of the Constitution, to a just compensation for his private property so taken for public use.

Although the present Congress may not do us justice, yet it is safe to rely upon the justice of the American people, and an appeal to them will not be unheeded or unanswered.

Peace restored and the unity of our Government preserved, the people will drive to an ignominious distance those who, in the agony of our conflict, perverted their sacred trusts to the base uses of partisan ends and fanatical purposes.

Uphold and maintain your Government as the one constituted, and obey and enforce its just demands as the only hope of perpetuating free institutions.

(Signed) THOS. E. BRAMLETTE.

A Successful Insurance Company.

A properly written history of the world's mercantile operations would gradually work more and more into a history of the insurance system. It is profitable then to turn to the record of a single successful corporation, and note the increasing favor it yearly commands. And for such a company we point to the Washington Insurance Company.

This company commenced business in December, 1850, with a capital of $200,000, under the management of its present efficient President, who was its founder, and who has given it his undivided attention from the start. The result is shown in its perfect management and success. During the first eight years it paid $288,000 in dividends to stockholders, being an average of 16 per cent. per annum. In 1860 its capital was doubled, from $200,000 to $400,000, and the Participation System adopted, "the safest and cheapest system of insurance." The company also added the business of insuring inland marine risks on the lakes and rivers and canals. Since then it has divided $160,000 among stockholders, and has also made three dividends in scrip of 50 per cent. on the earned premiums of policies entitled to participate, being the largest scrip rebate made by any company for three consecutive years.

The gross premiums of the Washington, for the fiscal year ending Jan. 31, 1864, were $206,314. The Company paid a five per cent. dividend in August last, which, with the eight per cent., now announced, makes thirteen per cent. for the year to stockholders.

Since the removal of the Washington, in May 1862, from Wall-street, to the splendid building erected by Dr. ELISHA PARMLY, on the corner of Broadway and Maiden-lane, it has largely increased its business.

We refer to the success of the Company with pleasure, and do not hesitate to recommend it to those who are in want of insurance against loss or damage by fire, or the risks of inland navagation on the lakes, rivers and canals. Mr. SATTERLEE, the President, Mr. WESTON, the Vice-President, and Mr. LOTHROP, the Secretary, are well known to the public as efficient and reliable men.—Commercial Advertiser.

While spending a few minutes the other day in the office of Mr. RUSSELL, (the gentlemanly agent of "Fish's Kerosene Lamp-Cooking Apparatus,") No. 306 Pearl-street, New-York, we were taken completely by surprise at witnessing the operation of cooking with one of the above arrangements, carried into full and complete effect. It was about dinner time, and Mr. R., probably desirous to satisfy visitors that what he states in his advertisements is actually so, was engaged in preparing his noon-tide meal, "at a cost of one cent;" and we take it upon us to say that a more nicely cooked little dinner we have rarely seen. The modus operandi is alike simple and efficacious—in fact, by this truly ingenious method, you can at once graduate the process of cooking while making it subservient to every hour of the day or night. It is well worth the while of those desirous to economise in all things to call upon Mr. R. as above, who will presently satisfy them that "Fish's Kerosene Lamp-Cooking Apparatus" is emphatically one of those discoveries deserving of general patronage.—Rahway Register.

Who Minds a Cold?—It seems a small affair, and, in consequence, is allowed to have its own way; and yet how frequently a neglected cold ends in bronchitis or consumption! Why not take a cold in time, then, and, by using at once Dr. D. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT, which for thirty years has been a standard remedy for all coughs and colds, avoid these dreadful alternatives?

WHAT IS MEANT BY BRONCHITIS

is an inflammation of the bronchia, or passages which convey air to the lungs. In its earlier stages this disease is commonly called a cold, or a cold in the breast. It usually comes on with a little hoarseness, followed by a moderate cough, with slight feelings of heat or soreness about the throat or chest. If not arrested, the cough becomes one of the most prominent symptoms, as well as the most painful and distressing; the inflammation increases in intensity, until it finally interferes with access of air to the lung cells, when the vital powers soon give way. In most of the stages of this disease Dr. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT effects a speedy cure, by producing a free and easy expectoration, suppressing the cough and allaying the fever. A fair trial is all that is asked.

IN CONSUMPTION, AND ALL PULMONARY COMPLAINTS,

Dr. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT will afford immediate relief, by removing the difficulty of breathing, and producing an easy expectoration, whereby all irritating and obstructing matters are removed from the lungs. Having maintained its reputation in all parts of the world for over a quarter of a century, it is confidently recommended as the best remedy ever offered for the diseases it professes to cure. Sold by Agents and Druggists everywhere, from whom may also be obtained Dr. JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS, a prompt and effectual cure for costiveness, sick headache, and all bilious affections. The Expectorant, and all Dr. D. JAYNE & SON'S Family Medicines, are sold by KITCHEN, TYLER & CO., No. 141 Chambers-st. and No. 1 Hudson-st., and by Druggists generally.

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH CURED.

No. 420 SIXTH-AV., NEW-YORK, Dec. 2, 1863.

I was deaf for several years, and hearing of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I was induced to place myself under his care, and I am now happy to state that my hearing was entirely restored after a short treatment. I was also suffering from chronic catarrh, of which I was also cured by the skillful treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg. I do but justice to the Doctor in stating that in treating me he displayed that skill and knowledge which have already procured for him such a deserved reputation, and that the principles which direct his system of curing Deafness and Catarrh are such as to render success certain, in my opinion. Many months have passed since Dr. Von Eisenberg restored my hearing, and it continues as good as ever.

CATARRH CURED.
READ!

I have been suffering for a long time from a severe Catarrh, with a continual dullness in my head, a tightness across my chest, a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery, and very painful. My nostrils were constantly obstructed with a pouring fluid. That frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, often attended with a fullness of my throat, great soreness, and a continual dropping. Dr. Von Eisenberg has cured me of all these disagreeable sufferings. I may, indeed, say that I feel a new life. The treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg is as skillful as it is successful. It is in my opinion impossible to overrate the benefit I have received at his hands. I heartily recommend any one suffering like myself to place themselves under Dr. Von Eisenberg's care, with a certainty of being speedily cured.

HARLEM, July 30, 1863.

I have been deaf for over TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, and Dr. VON EISENBERG operated on both of my ears without the slightest pain—a thing that I could not believe could be done. I now hear well, and feel as I never felt for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evince the highest practical ability. I hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

No. 134 ALLEN-ST., NEW-YORK, Feb. 9, 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain. JOHN TAYLOR.

NEW-YORK, July 29, 1862.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.

NEW-YORK, March 20, 1863.

"This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. I felt my nose completely stopped up accompanied by continual soreness of the throat, the chills stealing over me with occasional hot flushes, a great tightness of the chest and pain, so much so, that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him with but little hope of cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimonial to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg with a certainty of being cured."

TO THE PUBLIC.

Thirty years' uninterrupted use of BRANDRETH'S PILLS in the United States, their introduction to the people of Mexico, Central and South America, the Antilles, the Canadas and Australia, having been the means of saving from death and restoring to health thousands who have suffered from every form of disease, we may justly proclaim them the best purgative medicine the world has ever known.

Purgation is Nature's method of curing disease, and if any one doubts the fact, let him go to the Bible where the doctrine is taught. The horse, the dog and cat, when sick, resort to those grasses which open their bowels; even birds, who digest by muscular force alone, swallow stones to assist their evacuative powers. So instinct, as well as reason and the Bible, all teach that purgation is the natural law governing health.

Physicians who have been the most successful have invariably adhered to this natural law, though always with purgatives inferior to Brandreth's Pills.

To possess the secret of compounding the best purgative known to medical science is no slight responsibility. My chief object in life is to make the Brandreth Pills so they shall retain their high character, and hope that all the afflicted may be induced to try their merits, and so be restored to health. THE BRANDRETH PILLS increase the life principle, and diminish the death principle. If you ask how this is done, I reply: They cleanse the blood, correct and regulate all the secretions, and by purgation discharge the whole mass of morbid matter from the body, without reducing the strength! Purgation, with the remedies in fashion with the "regular profession," prostrate our strength to such a degree, in many cases, that an absolute injury to our general health is often produced; whereas BRANDRETH'S PILLS, while they cleanse the body by purgation, add strength to the vital powers.

GRAY'S PATENT MOLDED COLLARS
have now been before the public for nearly a year. They are universally pronounced the neatest and best fitting collars extant.
The upper edge presents a perfect curve, free from the angles noticed in all other collars.
The cravat causes no puckers on the inside of the turn-down collar; they are as smooth inside as outside, and therefore perfectly free and easy to the neck.
The Garotte Collar has a smooth and evenly finished edge on both sides.
These collars are not simply flat pieces of paper cut in the form of a collar, but are molded and shaped to fit the neck.
They are made in "Novelty" (or turn-down) style, in every half inch size from 12 to 17 inches, and in "Eureka" (or Garotte) from 13 to 17 inches, and packed in "solid sizes" in neat blue cartoons, containg 100 each; also, in smaller ones of 10 each—the latter a very handy package for travelers, army and navy officers.
Every collar is stamped
"GRAY'S PATENT MOLDED COLLARS."

DR. SCHENCK:

DEAR SIR: Several months since I was compelled to relinquish active business pursuits, in consequence of a severe cough, contracted by exposure. I placed myself under the treatment of my family physician for a time, without apparent relief, and he finally pronounced my lungs diseased, assuring me that it was useless to seek relief from medicines. He informed me that the only means by which my disease could be overcome was by seeking, through stimulating food and proper care, to reinvigorate my system, that if there was sufficient vigor left I might thus regain my health, otherwise my case was hopeless. At that time I was rapidly failing, and many of my friends thought I was beyond all hope. My cough was very severe, sometimes lasting for nearly half an hour at a time, with very copious expectoration, often accompanied with blood. My appetite was very poor, and my stomach so extremely weak that I could scarcely eat any food without being compelled to vomit immediately thereafter. After consulting various physicians without success, a friend advised me to give your medicines a trial. In accordance with this advice, I visited you, and the examination under your Respirometer proved very satisfactory, convincing me that you understood my case perfectly. I engaged upon the treatment prescribed, and in a short time found great relief. I am now enjoying greatly improved health, my cough troubles me very little, my appetite is good, and my strength gradually increasing.

It affords me pleasure to make this ackn

CHICAGO AND GREAT EASTERN RAILWAY COMPANY,
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
FOR $2,000,000.

SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS OPENED WITH
Messrs. SCHUCHARDT & GEBHARD, Bankers,
No. 21 Nassau-st., New-York.

The Chicago and Great Eastern Railway Company now offer for sale one million one hundred thousand dollars of their first mortgage bonds, in sums of one thousand dollars each, maturing in thirty years, bearing interest at the rate of Seven per cent. per annum, payable in the City of New-York, on the first days of April and October, in each year.

These bonds are secured by a first and only Mortgage on the property, income and franchises of the Railway Company, executed to Frederick Schuchardt and Henry Marquis, of the City of New-York, Trustees.

The remaining nine hundred thousand dollars of the Bonds are set apart and remain in the hands of the said Trustees, for the purpose of being disposed of for the indebtedness of the Chicago and Cincinnati Railroad Company, running from La Crosse to Logansport; this effected, the $2,000,000 will form a First and only Mortgage on a line of road 110 miles in length, extending from Chicago to Logansport, where it connects with the Cincinnati and Chicago Air-line Railroad, forming the shortest line by 40 miles, between Chicago and Cincinnati, and by 36 miles the shortest line between Louisville and Chicago.

It will also open, in connection with roads now in operation, entirely new and very direct lines from Chicago to New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and all Eastern cities. The distance between Chicago and New-York by this route being shorter than by either of the existing lines via Dunkirk or Buffalo.

The road is now under contract, and the most strenuous efforts are being made to have it open for traffic during the Summer of 1864.

The interest on the Bonds maturing during the progress of the work has been provided for, and will remain on deposit with the Bankers of the Company, Messrs SCHUCHARDT & GEBHARD, No. 21 Nassau-st., to whom the Company refer for further particulars, and where subscription books for this loan have been opened.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by DR WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. DR. WARD, from the Hospitals of London, Paris, and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 20 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and at less expense than any other can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health call: it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks, permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st. Call, send, or write.

SPEEDY RELIEF AND SURE CURE GUARANTEED.—Therefore, let no false delicacy prevent your immediate application to Dr. POWERS. Dr. POWERS, successfully consulted with Dr. WARD No. 50 Lispenard-st. Conducted on the plan of the Hospital des Venerienes, Paris, where those afflicted with any form of private disease can receive prompt treatment, without risk or exposure, viz.: Syphilis, gonorrhœa, gleet, stricture, ulcers, tumors, cancers, secondary and constitutional syphilis, diseases of the kidneys, &c., &c. Thirty years of extensive practice, exclusively devoted to the treatment of those complaints, enable us to effect cures in cases where others less experienced have failed. Dr. Powers' Essence of Life restores the vigor of youth in four weeks. This marvelous agent restores manhood to the most shattered constitution—physical disqualifications, impediments to marriage, speedily cured. The men to consult are Ward and Powers, the champions and kings of venereal diseases, possessing the most certain, speedy and only effectual remedies in the world. Those who have used their preventives are never without. Send or a circular. To Ladies.—Dr. Powers' Periodical Drops are a safe and certain remedy for monthly irregularities. The above remedies sent by mail. The afflicted should read their circular. Postage free, on receipt of a stamp. Cures warranted.

CAUTION TO LADIES, SINGLE AND MARRIED.—Every woman truly a lady, has an aversion to call in or upon a physician, in respect to complaints peculiar to her sex. Besides the shock to her delicacy in consulting persons, most of whom know nothing of her ailments, she incurs worse than useless expense in buying injurious pills, drops, potions, &c. No lady need call upon the numerous doctors with whom to uselessly spend her means, as "The Married Woman's Private Medical Companion," price $1, by A. M. Mauriceau, Professor of Diseases of Women, designed especially for the married or those about to be married, points out the mode of treatment to remove obstructions, irregularities, or her other ailments, as mother or wife, with the causes and symptoms, and what best to do. Sold at his office, No. 129 Liberty-st., New-York; or can be sent by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States and Canada, by inclosing $1, and addressing Box No. 1,224 New-York City. Consultation daily at No 1 Vesey-st. (Astor House,) and 18 Ann-st., FEDERHEN & CO., 13 Court-st., Boston

Dr A. M. MAURICEAU.

No. 1 $3 a box. Sold at No. 127½ Liberty-st., No. 3 Division-st., New-York City. Right separate rooms; a private entrance. Price $1, or sent to any address on receipt of price.

MUSICAL.

CHICKERING & SONS
MANUFACTURERS OF GRAND, SQUARE, AND UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, No. 652 Broadway.—The superiority of these instruments has of late been amply demonstrated by the voluntary testimony of the foremost artists of the day, who claim for them excellencies of tone and workmanship hitherto unobtained by any other makers.
Mr. GOTTSCHALK'S constant use of the NEW SCALE CHICKERING GRAND PIANO-FORTES has severely tested their musical qualities, and resulted in establishing the justice of the very flattering estimation in which they are held.

STEINWAY & SONS'
GOLD MEDAL GRAND AND SQUARE PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862.
The principal reason why the Steinway Pianos are superior to all others, is, that the firm is composed of five practical pianoforte makers, (father and four sons,) who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

HALIFAX, Wednesday, March 16.

The R. M. steamship Arabia, from Liverpool March 5, via Queenstown 6th, arrived at this port, en route to Boston, this evening. Her advices are two days later than per steamship Jura at Portland.

The steamship City of Washington, from New-York, arrived at Liverpool on the morning of the 5th.

The Arabia passed the China on the 6th at 9 P. M., off Cape Clear.

On the 12th, signaled the American ship Southampton, bound west.

The Arabia will leave for Boston about midnight.

She has thirty-five passengers for Halifax and forty-five for Boston. She arrived at 7:30 P M.

Danish affairs are reported as unchanged.

The Archduke MAXIMILIAN arrived at Paris on the 5th inst., and it is reported that he will embark for Mexico on the 25th, all difficulties having been settled.

The ship Yorktown, bound from London to New-York, which put back to port on the 1st inst., with damage, is discharging her cargo for repairs.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The London Shipping Gazette says the Galway Company confess themselves beaten, and ask to be relieved from the postal contract. It recommends to the company to sell their ships, and not attempt the transrer from Galway to Cork,

There was a report that the Government had resolved to make Falmouth the packet station for all foreign mails, instead of Southampton.

The annual general meeting of the Atlantic Telegraph Company was announced for the 16th of March, at London.

The appeal to the House of Lords in the Alexandra case had been entered for hearing, and will probably therefore be taken up before the Easter vacation.

The Daily News replies to the sneers of the Times at Gen. BANKS' general order regulating negro labor in Louisiana, and applauds the measure as necessary, preparatory to the step from Slavery to entire freedom.

The Times, in an editorial on the taxation to which America must be subjected, says the inevitable truths of finance are at length dawning on the American mind, and says the Americans can and must make up their minds to bear widespread and equitable taxation.

In the House of Commons on the 4th, the Attorney-General said the papers relative to the detention of the Tuscaloosa at the Cape of Good Hope were in preparation, and would be laid before Parliament in a few days.

Mr. SHAW LEFEVRE called attention to the course pursued by the Confederate agents in England in fitting out war vessels and enlisting seamen, and moved for the papers on the subject. He denounced the proceedings, regretted that the Alabama was not detained, and contended that all such vessels should be prohibited entering British ports, and if they did, British cruisers should seize them.

The Solicitor-General explained and defended the course of the Government, and asserted that every effort had been made to honestly carry out the laws and maintain neutrality. He admitted that the vessels might be prohibited entering British ports, and said the Government were considering the subject of how they could remonstrate with the Confederate Government.

THE DANISH WAR.

No fighting is reported.

The remonstrance of France to Prussia against the advance of the Prussian troops into Jutland is said to be far less forcible than England's, but the tone of the documents is considered indicative that NAPOLEON fully means what he says.

Neustadt, in Holstein, is blockaded.

It is asserted that the Prussians have notified England of an intended early attack on Frederica.

The Austria semi-official Correspondenz of Vienna denies the rumored warlike preparations in Venetia, and most positively declares that Austria has not the remotest intention of assuming the offensive. The rumors are nevertheless repeated via Turin.

LATEST VIA LIVERPOOL.

LIVERPOOL, Saturday, March 5.

SHAW LEFEVRE'S speech in the House of Commons last night relative to rebel cruisers was strongly Northern in sentiment. He maintained the vessels were British, and it was absurd to call them Confederate war-vessels. He gave the Government credit for endeavoring to carry out the Foreign Enlistment Act, but the act is insufficient, and the remedy should be applied.

There is nothing important to-day relative to the Danish war, and nothing is expected until the interval requested by Denmark for deciding the conference question expires.

Search for the Italian Frigate.

A FLEET OF FIVE STEAMERS SAILS TO-DAY.

Vigorous and successful exertions were made yesterday for a prompt search for the Italian war steamer seen in distress by the Star of the West, as detailed in our evening edition of Tuesday. A meeting was held at the Italian Consulate yesterday morning, at which several officers and distinguished citizens attended. It was resolved to charter a steamer, and send her to the latitude where the frigate was seen. She was seen March 7, lat. 40° 40' lon. 64° 24' at 4 o'clock P. M.; her main topmasts were gone, and on being hailed, the reply was that she was in a sinking condition. The Star of the West lay to and remained in the vicinity until morning, when, seeing nothing of the vessel, she resumed her course. All the propabilities are, and it is generally believed, that the vessel was the Italian man-of-war Re Gualantuomo, which sailed hence on the 3d inst. The North Star has been secured, and at once preparations were made to have her start forthwith. All the necessary materials were quickly put on board, and in the afternoon the fires could have been lighted. A communication reached the Consul from Commodore RADFORD, to the effect that a steamer would be dispatched from the Navy-yard as soon as she could possibly be got ready. The U. S. steamer Proteus, Commander SHUFELT, will leave this morning, or this afternoon at furthest, for the location of the disaster. The Russian and French authorities have also signified their intention to send off each a vessel immediately. An English war steamer in port is also to go, so that at least five steamers will be outward bound this evening on the charitable mission. The Russian corvette is to sail from Hampton Roads. Another meeting of Italian officers and American gentlemen took place last night at the Everett House, where measures were taken to secure the hasty departure of the searching fleet.

St. Patrick's Day.

THE PROGRAMME FOR THE CELEBRATION.

To-day the honors to Ireland's "Patron Saint" are to be paid. The various Hibernian societies will unite in a grand civil and military procession, in accordance with the published programme of the Grand Marshal of the day. The civil societies will form at 10 A. M. in East Broadway, right resting on Grand-street. The procession will move on the firing of a signal gun. Its arrival at City Hall Park will be announced by a salute of 17 guns. The First Regiment, N. Y. S. N. G., Col. MINTON, will parade in full uniform, and during the line of march join the procession.

The entire procession will be reviewed in front of the City Hall by the Mayor and Common Council. After which, passing out at the West gate, the procession will proceed up Broadway to Fourteenth-street, passing round and saluting the statue of WASHINGTON; thence through Fourteenth-street to Seventh-avenue, up Seventh-avenue to Twenty-third-street, through Twenty-third-street to First-avenue, down First-avenue to Ninth-street, through Ninth-street to Fourth-avenue, and there dismiss.

The following societies will be represented in the procession:

Ancient Order of Hibernians of New-York; Ancient Order of Hibernians of Brooklyn; Father Matthew T. A. B. Society, No. 2, of New-York; Society of the Immaculate Conception; Hibernia Benevolent Society; Father Matthew U. B. T. A. B. Society; Longshoremen's Society; Barry B. Society; Benevolent U. S. of Erin; Father Matthew U. B. T. A. B., No. 2; Thomas F. Meagher Club; St. Ann's R. C. T. A. S., Brooklyn, and Father Matthew T. A. R. S., No. 3.

A solemn high mass will be celebrated in St. Patrick's Cathedral, at 10½ o'clock A. M., by the Very Rev. STARRS, Administrator of the Diocese, and the panegyric of the Saint will be preached by Rev. FRANCIS E. BOYLE, of Washington, D. C.

In the evening there will be a flag presentation by the Irish ladies of New-York to the First Regiment Phœnix Brigade; a ball by the officers of the Sixty-ninth, a dinner by the Sons of St. Patrick at the Astor House, and a dinner by the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick at Delmonico's.

The Last Call for Troops.

The following order was yesterday issued by Brig.-Gen. HAYS:

OFFICE A. A. PROVOST-MARSHAL-GENERAL, SOUTHERN DIVISION, NEW-YORK, March 16th, 1864.

CIRCULAR.—Provost-Marshals are instructed to proceed with the clerical force present in their employ in the preparation of the cards for the draft on April 15.

The quotas of the different districts and sub-districts will be announced hereafter.

Bounties will be discontinued on April 1, except the $100 authorized by act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861. With proper exertion, it is hoped that the quota of the Southern Division of New-York can be filled by April 15, and thus render a draft here unnecessary. By order of

Brig.-Gen. HAYS, A. A. Provost-Marshal-Gen.
H. F. BROWNSON, Assistant-Adjutant-Gen.

AN ENLARGEMENT AND IMPROVEMENT.—The extraordinary success which has attended the enterprise of Mr. J. T. ELLIS in opening a central emporium for the sale of Wheeler & Wilson's celebrated Sewing Machines, No. 929 Broadway, corner of Twenty-second-street, has already compelled the proprietor to extend his facilities for meeting the requirements of the public. He has accordingly secured the adjoining premises, at No. 937 Broadway, and the spacious apartments of both buildings are now at his command. This will enable him to keep on hand a larger stock of machines, for sale and to rent, and to meet the heavy demands made upon him by families for the services of operators, a large number of whom Mr. ELLIS keeps steadily at work in manufacturing contributions for the great Metropolitan Sanitary Fair. It is highly creditable to Messrs. Wheeler & Wilson, of whose establishment Mr. ELLIS is a graduate, that they have so liberally extended to him the facilities to establish a successful and profitable business for himself, and at the same time to greatly accommodate the public by the opening of an emporium so convenient of access to all families in want of sewing machines. Mr. ELLIS gives strict personal attention to his business, is very kind and obliging to persons of limited means, and his enterprise commends itself highly to every citizen, who in patronizing him, and realizing every advantage that they could elsewhere obtain, at the same time aid in extending advantages to people of moderate means. —Sunday Mercury.

WEDNESDAY, March 16—P. M.

The issue of Two Years Legal-Tender 5 ₩ cents. has been suspended. The following official notice to this effect was this morning received by the National Banks:

TREASURY OF THE UNITED STATES, WASHINGTON, Tuesday, March 14.

Subscriptions having been received for the total amount of Two Year Five ₩ cent. Treasury Notes with coupons attached, which it is proposed to issue, you will please receive no deposits on account of such notes after the receipt of this notice.

F. E. SPINNER, Treasurer U. S.

The foregoing announcement may be construed into an indication that the new 10-40 years 5 ₩ cent. Gold-bearing Loan is soon to be brought on the market.

The price of gold ranged to-day very much as it did yesterday, the fluctuations being 3 ₩ cent. The figures in the Gold room were as high as 163½ and as low as 160½ ₩ cent. There was no substantial reason for the doubt thrown upon the Gold resolution in Congress, and consequent advance to 163½ early in the forenoon. As an Administration measure, we felt quite sure it would go through the House, in one shape or another, so as to give the Secretary of the Treasury the control over the demand for Customs and the disbursements for the Interest and Sinking Funds. An editorial paragraph in one of the Opposition papers this morning, argued that the Resolution is designed to force an artificial decline in the market price of Gold. The real purpose is to check an unnecessary advance, (artificial, if you please to call it so,) by withdrawing from the market, through the Customs, of a much larger sum of Gold than is immediately wanted by the Treasury for the payment of Interest, no considerable sum of which falls due before the 1st of May. The other outlet, the Sinking Fund, was closed to the Secretary, according to his construction of authority and duty on the subject, by a defect in the Acts of Congress of 1862. It was proper, therefore, that the present Congress should remove the difficulty whereby the Government was placed in the singular and inconsistent attitude of creating a much larger demand and constent strain upon the market for Gold through the Customs, without authority to the Secretary of the Treasury to remedy a pressure, unnecessary in itself and prejudicial, in every way, to the credit of the National Legal-Tender Currency.

The Railway speculation is again very fair, and at the Afternoon Board of the Stock Exchange there was much excitement on Cleveland and Pittsburgh, and Chicago and Fort Wayne among the Western Roads, and increased bidding for Hudson River among the New-York lines. Harlem not so firm as it looked earlier in the day, and Erie barely steady at 123@123¼ ₩ cent. The last-named Stock attracted less attention than yesterday, though good buyers appeared on each fractional decrease in the offers to sell. The forthcoming April Dividend on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh is assigned as the cause of the advance since yesterday morning to 125 ₩ cent., and the hope of a Scrip Dividend on the Fort Wayne Stock with the consent of the Bondholders, is helping the operation in this Stock. It is understood that a meeting or conference of the stock and bondholders is in session at Pittsburgh to-day. The third class of bonds advanced 5 ₩ cent. this forenoon. The shares sold as high as 131 ₩ cent. between the Boards. Among the Miscellaneous Shares, Central American Transit had a large rise on the last news from Nicaragua, and Pacific Mail was also firmer. The Coal Stocks were firm; Canton and Quicksilver a fraction easier than yesterday. The Government Stocks steady. Treasury Certificates in request, at 99¼@⅜ ₩ cent.

At 4 o'clock the Railway Shares were not quite so strong as at the Second Board; the market taking the course of yesterday on Erie Common Stock, and lower on Harlem. The following prices were made in comparison with Tuesday afternoon, same hour. The price of Gold about 161 ₩ cent. The price of Money to the Stock Exchange borrowers was generally 6 ₩ cent. today, and the supply easy:
